Declaration

Booth College is a Christian university college, owned and operated by The Salvation Army. As such, its ethos is shaped profoundly by its Christian heritage and identity. Students applying for admission to Booth College should understand that as a Christian College, we expect our students to comply with the faith and lifestyle standards of the College. These faith and lifestyle standards are enumerated in our Student Handbook.

I hereby apply for admission to Booth College and certify that the statements contained herein are true and complete. I acknowledge that Booth College is a Christian College with faith and lifestyle standards that I accept and will maintain. I understand that the Application for Admission fee is non-refundable and cannot be applied toward any other expenses incurred while at Booth College.

I understand that all parts of my Application for College Admission become the property of the College once submitted and will not be returned to me. I authorize Booth College to verify all information submitted with my Application for College Admission (including transcripts and information submitted by my referee). I understand that misrepresentation, falsified documents, or the withholding of requested information with respect to this application may result in the cancellation of my acceptance and enrollment, or dismissal from the College.

The personal information collected will be used for admission and enrollment purposes and may be used for determining eligibility for student awards. Information regarding graduation and awards may be made public. This information will be used for statistical reporting as required of the College by accrediting and government agencies.
